

Program at a glance (as of September 13, 2023)

K: Keynote Speech	L: Luncheon Seminar	O: Oral Session	P: Poster Session
R: Roundtable Discussion	S: Symposium	SS: Special Session	WS: Workshop

Day	Time	Main hall	Meeting room 1	Meeting room 2	Meeting room 3	Meeting room 4	Special meeting room 1	Special meeting room 2-3
Sep 19, Tue	14:45-16:00		WS1 Workshop1 :Participatory workplace environment improvement programs for work-related stress reduction.		WS2 The Psychosocial Safety Climate Global Project Workshop				7:30-18:00 Corporate site-visit → Cancelled
	16:15-17:15	Opening ceremony
	17:30-18:30		Opening reception

Program at a glance (as of September 13, 2023)

K: Keynote Speech	L: Luncheon Seminar	O: Oral Session	P: Poster Session
R: Roundtable Discussion	S: Symposium	SS: Special Session	WS: Workshop

Day	Time	Main hall	Meeting room 1	Meeting room 2	Meeting room 3	Meeting room 4	Special meeting room 1	Special meeting room 2-3
Sep 20, Wed	9:20-10:05	K1 The future of (decent) work and psychosocial risks. The ILO perspective
	10:15-11:30	S1. Decent work as an innovative framework for a psychologically healthy and safe working life. Transformative OSH research and policies in times of multiple crises	S2.Active aging in the context of work: the role of psychosocial work quality	SS1. Life-course psychosocial adversities and workers' health	O1. COVID-19 and the workplace	O2. Diversity (e.g. gender, ethnicity, age)
	11:45-12:45		L1. How to respond to stress? Mindfulness perspective		L2. Health & Productivity Management improves the wellbeing of employees and realizes the sustainable development of the company.
	13:00-13:45	K2 The compatibility of worker's well-being and firm's value in Japan
	14:00-15:15	S3. Work engagement, Positive Mental Health in the Workplace	S4. Burden of disease and costs of psychosocial risks in the workplace (potential and limits of an economic/monetary perspective on psychosocial risks at work)	SS2. Design, implementation and evaluation of multilevel mental health interventions:				P1. Poster session 1
	15:30-16:45	S5. Working times and work-life balance in different country and cultural contexts	S6. New Longitudinal Insights into Work Stress and Well-Being Processes	O3. Sleep, fatigue, burnout and recovery	O4. Frontline employees (in the COVID-19 pandemic)	O5. Physical activity, lifestyle and work-life balance	R1.Roundtable : National policy approach for psychological health Part 1
	17:00-18:15	S7. Digital mental health interventions at workplace: challenges and future directions	S8. Democracy at work, employee voice and whistleblowing (psychosocial factors for speaking up vs. for individual and organisational silence, regulatory and cultural aspects).		O6. Job insecurity and precarious work	O7. Worker mental health in the future of work	R2.Roundtable: National database

Program at a glance (as of September 13, 2023)

K: Keynote Speech	L: Luncheon Seminar	O: Oral Session	P: Poster Session
R: Roundtable Discussion	S: Symposium	SS: Special Session	WS: Workshop

Day	Time	Main hall	Meeting room 1	Meeting room 2	Meeting room 3	Meeting room 4	Special meeting room 1	Special meeting room 2-3
Sep 21. Thu	9:20-10:05	K3 Incorporating Time in Job Stress Models, Concepts, Measures, Measurement Occasions, and Statistical Analyses
	10:15-11:30	S9. Impact of COVID-19 in the workplace		SS3. Sustainable inclusion of vulnerable groups in the labour market using a Living Lab	O8. Incivility, violence, bullying and harassment	O9. ICT, robotic and modern technologies in workplace setting	R1. Roundtable : National policy approach for psychological health Part 2
	11:45-12:45		L3. Why does culture matter? (in Japanese)		L4.Mindset as the key to stress management: How we can monitor and improve people's reaction to stressors		ICOH-WOPS business meeting
	13:00-13:45	K4 Work & suicide: Evolving understandings of aetiology & intervention
	14:00-15:15	S10. Digitalization of working life	S11. For Healthy and Active Work: Workplace Reform Focusing on Human Resource Development (in Japanese)	Social meeting. Let's talk about global collaboration: study abroad and global research project	O10. Psychosocial risks : assessment and management	O11. Innovations in research methods (data collection and analysis)	R1. Roundtable : National policy approach for psychological health) Part 3	P2 Poster session 2
	15:30-16:45	S12. Return to work (cancer and chronic disease) psychosocial aspects, rehabilitation, compensation, prevention	S13. Psychosocial Safety Climate (PSC) interventions in different country and cultural contexts (Part I).	SS4. The importance of psychosocial risk factors in MSD	O12. Psychosocial risks : global and cultural perspectives	O13. Government initiatives, laws, regulations, policies
	18:00-20:30	Gala Dinner at Gakushi Kaikan (3 min walk from Hitotsubashi Hall)

Program at a glance (as of September 13, 2023)

K: Keynote Speech	L: Luncheon Seminar	O: Oral Session	P: Poster Session
R: Roundtable Discussion	S: Symposium	SS: Special Session	WS: Workshop

Day	Time	Main hall	Meeting room 1	Meeting room 2	Meeting room 3	Meeting room 4	Special meeting room 1	Special meeting room 2-3
Sep 22, Fri	8:50-10:05		SS5. The New JCQ2: Platforms of Dynamic Stability and JCQ2 Global Risk Monitoring					P3 Poster session 3
	10:15-11:30	S14. Psychosocial Safety Climate (PSC) interventions in different country and cultural contexts (Part II).	S15. Tackling psychosocial risks at work: advocacy activities of NGOs	O14. Interventions (organizational and individual)	O15. Worker well-being, positive work experience	SS6. Workplace mental health
	11:45-12:45		L5. Assessment and Transformation of Behavior Using Information Science				APA-PFAW business meeting
	13:00-13:45	K5 Methodological and theoretical wishes for the next decade of psychosocial safety climate research.
	14:00-15:00	Closing ceremony						